Dear CNS Response Shareholder,

EAC Investment Limited Partnership and I have called for a Special Meeting of Stockholders for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors that is now scheduled for Monday August 17, 2009. You have yet to receive a final proxy, with voting instructions and proxy card as those documents are still being reviewed by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Based on the last communication with the SEC, we expect to receive approval shortly. This is why you have yet to hear from me.

At the August 17 meeting I will make a motion to adjourn it again until August 26. Based on the feedback from the SEC, I believe finally we will be able to have the stockholders meeting on August 26 with proxy materials and voting instructions available to register your vote. I will contact you with specific instructions the day that the SEC review is completed.

Some people may be on vacation in late August and won't be getting their mail. Others may have moved to a new address and it is taking a longer time to get their mail forwarded from their previous address. If this is the case for you, then please send me a new address where you can receive materials during the week of August 20. We plan to send instructions for reading the proxy materials on-line and voting. Also, if the e-mail where you are receiving this message is not the best and needs to be updated, please let me know..

If you have any questions or need more information about the proxy, voting your proxy card or anything else, call or e-mail me or Connie Chandler (copied here)
